Social Media Disclaimer

The City of Great Falls provides Social Networking opportunities in an effort to share information, reinforce messages, reach new audiences and establish new communication channels. The City's use of social media is for informational and marketing purposes only, and the City assumes no responsibility for any content and/or information not posted by the City. Posted comments do not represent the views of the City of Great Falls. The City is not responsible for the security of social networking sites and applications that reside outside the City's domain.

The purpose of this site is to provide timely information regarding the City of Great Falls to its many residents, businesses and visitors. We encourage you to submit comments, but please note that this is not a public forum. Once posted, the City reserves the right, but does not assume the obligation, to delete submissions that are illegal, obscene, defamatory, threatening, invade privacy or which are lewd, contain vulgar language, personal attacks of any kind or offensive comments that target or disparage any ethnic, racial or religious group or which infringe upon the intellectual property others.

The City does not necessarily review posted content on a regular basis. Further, the City also reserves the right to delete comments/posts that are spam or include links to other sites, clearly off topic or advocate illegal activity, promote particular services, products or organizations or infringe on copyrights or trademarks.

Please be advised that comments expressed on this site do not necessarily reflect the opinions and position of the City of Great Falls or its employees. The City of Great Falls does not take responsibility and assumes no liability for any content posted by the public on social media sites.

Communications sent via the internet or through social media sites shall in no way be deemed to constitute legal notice to the City of Great Falls or any of its employees, where notice to the City is required by any law, rule, regulation or contract.

Further, please be advised that you participate at your own risk, taking personal responsibility for comments, username and any information provided. Content of social media sites is an effective and accepted form of communication, but should not be construed as private and the posting of comments on social media sites creates a transitory record. These types of records are not official records, however like e-mail, posts to social media sites may constitute agency legal records. The City of Great Falls will comply with current Montana laws and comply with the laws and guidelines for Montana Records Management regarding the retention of social media content.
