ICE BREAKER ROAD RACE Take Advantage of Early Registration This Week

The 33rd Annual Ice Breaker Road Race will be held Sunday, April 22, 2012. Join over 3,400 runners, joggers and fitness walkers who enter the race each year. Participants range from recreational walkers, families enjoying an outing, to serious competitive runners. The five-mile road race offers a competitive format; and the three-mile run offers both a competitive and recreational format. Pacer the Penguin will be entered in the one-mile race and will be challenging kids of all ages. Register the entire family in the one-mile jog and fitness walk and take advantage of our special family rate.

REGISTRATION:

Registration is Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Park and Recreation office at 1700 River Drive North or on-line at www.icebreakergf.com. Registration forms are also available at Universal Athletic and Scheels Stores throughout the State.

Special Registration: Register at Scheels in Holiday Village Mall on Saturday, April 14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. This is the last opportunity to get in on early registration in person. It is also the last date to register without paying the $2 per entry late fee.

Register by April 15 to be included in the drawing for early registration. All participants who register during early registration will be entered into a drawing for two great prizes: a Sunkist Youth Four Wheeler donated by Pepsi, $350 value; and twenty visits to the Peak Health and Wellness Center, $300 value. (Registration is available on-line only on Sunday, April 15.)
