Winter Weather Advisory in Effect this Evening

Looks like there will be snow just in time for the Christmas Stroll!

There is a Winter Weather Advisory in effect from 5 p.m. Friday, December, 7 until 5 p.m. Saturday, December, 8 for elevations below 5,000 feet.

Snow accumulations: total snow accumulation of 2 to 5 inches can be expected at lower elevations while a general 6 to 12 inches can be expected for elevations above 5,000 feet. Isolated amounts around 15 inches are possible in the Kings Hill Area.

Winds and visibility: Northwest winds will begin to increase later tonight and on Friday to 15-25 MPH, with around 30 MPH at times. Visibility may be reduced to less than one half mile at times.
