

Lee Nellis, FAICP, new Deputy Director, P&CD

The Planning & Community Development Department welcomes Lee Nellis, FAICP (Fellow of the American Institute of Certified Planners), as the new Deputy Director.

Lee started his position in October and comes to us from Wapiti, Wyoming. He has nearly 40 years of planning experience, primarily in the western United States. Among other projects here in Montana, he wrote an award-winning plan for the City of Red Lodge and helped that city keep its post office in the central business district.

He is a sought-after lecturer with an extensive list of publications to his credit. His most recent adventures have been designing and leading educational tours in Yellowstone National Park and to other amazing destinations.

Welcome to the City of Great Falls and P&CD, Lee.

Source URL (retrieved on 01/27/2015 - 11:47pm):

<http://www.greatfallsmt.net/planning/lee-nellis-faicp-new-deputy-director-pcd>